I. D. Nazarenko, secretary of the Tsentral'nyy Komitet KP(b) Ukraine, reported on "Problems of Mass Political Work Among Kolkhoz Workers and the Peasants of the Western and Transcarpathian Oblasts of the Ukraine in the Drive for Organizational and Economic Strengthening of Kolkhozes and the Further Development of Collectivization." Party organizations have made considerable progress in the socialist reconstruction in the western oblasts of the republic. Their success is indicated by the fact that 91 percent of peasant holdings in Drogobych Oblast, 87 in Volyn Oblast, 84 in Chernovtsev Oblast, and 58 in Transcarpathian Oblast have already been combined into kolkhozes. Collectivization is also progressing in other oblasts. Nazarenko pointed out serious defects in the work of some Party organizations in the western oblasts. Political work is not progressing satisfactorily in some rayons of Stanislav Oblast. The rural intelligentsia has not been recruited for political work and rural conferences for mass political work among peasants are rarely held. Nazarenko cited the example of the Party organization in Medenitskiy Rayon, Drogobych Oblast, where 24 of the 107 Communists are working directly on the kolkhozes, Komsomol organizations have been created in every village, and where mass political work is undertaken on a wide scale by almost all Communists, Komsomols, kolkhoz administrators, teachers, medical workers, and agronomists. Nazarenko appealed to all Party organizations to improve and extend political agitation work on the kolkhozes and increase their control over kolkhoz activity.

Twenty-six delegates entered the discussion following the report, telling of the progress of Party work among kolkhozes and peasants in their areas: Among them were: I. B. Demstakiy, secretary, Lyubeshskiy Rayon Party Committee, Volyn Oblast; A. V. Polupan, chief, propaganda and agitation section, Kitamanskiy Rayon Party Committee, Chernovtsev Oblast; I. V. Gaziy, secretary, primary Party organization, village of Velikiye Luchki; V. T. Kononenko, secretary, Pochayevskiy Rayon Party Committee, Ternopol' Oblast; D. P. KOMSOMOL MEMBERSHIP LAGS IN CHITA OBLAST -- Zabaykal'skiy Rabochiy, No 50, 13 Mar 49

More than 5,000 youths were admitted to Komsomol organizations in Chita Oblast within the last 6 months, but there are many organizations throughout the oblast which have done nothing to increase their membership. Nearly 900 primary Komsomol organizations admitted no members in the last 6 months of 1948. The greater part of the rural Komsomol organizations have few members and there are still some kolkhozes without a Komsomol group. There are fewer Komsomol members in Chita City Komsomol organizations than in the city Party organization. Olovyaninskii Rayon organizations have almost completely ceased admission of new members. Komsomol work among rural youth and students of technical, PZO and trade schools has been particularly ineffective.

About 3,000 Komsomol workers are studying at universities of Marxism-Leninism, 1,500 persons are studying in night schools and correspondence courses, and more than 30,000 are studying the history of the Party independently.
